

RWG HORSEMANSHIP

Barn Rule Agreement

- NO Smoking or tobacco on premises
- No running or yelling
- You will be held responsible for any friends or family that is brought on property. All visitors must sign a barn rule and liability form.
- Do not feed or pet any animal without permission. Feeding the animals can lead to pushy behavior from the animal. Please do NOT pet the horses that are in the pasture at any time without permission.
- If you are not in closed toed shoes, for your safety you're not allowed to leave the parking area. Or approach the tacking up area.
- For your own safety do not retrieve any horse without permission.
- Do not wander around the premise without permission. Only participants are allowed in the pasture during lessons.
- If you open gate you must close the gate.
- Do not climb on the gates or fencing.
- Please be respectful to others on the premise and the animals.
- Children that are not participants must not be left unattended.

By signing this form you agree to abide by these rules and understand them. If you are found in violation of this agreement you may be asked to leave the property and be banned. All members of the family that may be on the property must sign the barn rules.
